

COMPANY RULES AFAS LIVE

Applicability

1. These Company Rules apply to all persons present in AFAS Live.

General

2. Always follow the directions given by the authorized persons designated by the management of AFAS Live. In situations not provided for by these rules, the management or the persons designated by the management will decide.

Admission to AFAS Live

3. Admission to AFAS Live will be exclusively granted upon presentation of a valid admission ticket or any other authorisation issued by AFAS Live. Authorisations issued by AFAS Live are non-transferable. At the request of persons designated by the management of AFAS Live, any person must be able to present a valid admission ticket or other authorisation.
4. It is prohibited to stay in or enter any other part of AFAS Live than the area to which one is authorised.
5. Visitors leaving AFAS Live during an event, are in principle not allowed to re-enter AFAS Live.
6. Anyone present in AFAS Live must carry valid identification.
7. AFAS Live applies a recommended minimum age of 16 years for visitors attending events independently (without adult accompaniment). Visitors under the age of 18 are not allowed admittance to night events.
8. The persons designated by the management of AFAS Live have the right to monitor anyone who wishes to enter, or who is present in AFAS Live and seize any unauthorised items. Seized items will be stored, at the risk of the owner, until after the end of the visit to the building, unless the policy of the organiser of the event provides otherwise or the items are prohibited by law. Monitoring is done by means of a body search and private superficial security search. A body search/superficial security search within AFAS Live is performed upon entering and exiting the building and within AFAS Live if there is reason to do so. Within AFAS Live, a body search and private superficial security search are defined as follows. Body search: checking bags, suitcases, boxes, and any other items carried on a person. Private superficial security search: superficial frisking of clothes, pockets, and possibly shoes. Upon refusal of the above monitoring, the visitor is denied (further) access.
9. The following items may not be brought into AFAS Live: a. food and beverages; b. dangerous objects, including weapons, knives, or any other potentially sharp objects such as glass, cans or other metal containers; c. (soft/hard) drugs and alcoholic beverages; d. poisonous, highly combustible or highly explosive materials, fireworks; e. skates, bicycles, kick scooters, skateboards etc.; f. pets or any other animals; g. professional photography, video, and audio recording equipment; h. and any other items which, to the exclusive judgement of the management of AFAS Live and the persons designated by the management of AFAS Live, could pose a safety and/or health hazard and danger to the public order.
10. The management of AFAS Live reserves the right to deny admission to visitors without stating reasons, and without these visitors having the right to compensation of any damage and/or loss.

In AFAS Live

11. Visitors under 18 are prohibited from buying and/or consuming alcohol in and around AFAS Live. Furthermore, visitors aged 18 and older are prohibited from providing alcohol to visitors under the age of 18. Visitors under 18 are prohibited from buying tobacco. Persons designated by the management of AFAS Live monitor compliance with the above, whereby visitors can be requested to present proof of identification or an (18+) wristband issued by AFAS Live. Upon violation of the aforementioned prohibition, the visitor can be denied access to AFAS Live.
12. Smoking is prohibited in AFAS Live.
13. The use of and trade in (soft/hard) drugs is strictly prohibited.
14. It is prohibited to enter AFAS Live or be present in AFAS Live while under the influence of alcohol.

15. It is not allowed to block gangways, (emergency) exits, staircases, fire extinguishers or hydrants.
16. It is prohibited to cause damage to goods or harm persons or act in such a way that such damage or harm is imminent. Standing on seats, climbing on structures or onto the stage, stage diving and crowdsurfing, throwing objects, including liquid, is particularly prohibited. In addition, it is prohibited to act in such a manner (including, but not limited to, wearing certain clothes or expressing certain views), which, to the exclusive judgement of the management (may) disturb the peace.
17. Taking photographs and making video or audio recordings are only allowed if the organiser of the event has given its consent thereto. Taking photographs and making video or audio recordings in the areas of AFAS Live that are not accessible to the general public is not allowed.
18. Offering for sale and/or otherwise distributing or having distributed merchandise such as beverages, food, t-shirts, posters and such, and the distribution of brochures, flyers, and other advertising in AFAS Live and its direct vicinity is only permitted after prior written consent of the management of AFAS Live.
19. AFAS Live and the organiser of an event (subject to the approval of AFAS Live) have the right to make screen recordings of the visitors of an event. AFAS Live has the right to display these recordings on the screens inside AFAS Live. Moreover, AFAS Live has the right to use these recordings for its own purposes and make these recordings available for use by its partners. The organiser of an event has (subject to the approval of AFAS Live) the right to use any recordings of its event at its own discretion and free of charge and to exploit these in any which way.
20. Any waste, including that of consumed drinks and food, must be deposited in the appropriate containers.

Calamities

21. Anyone present in AFAS Live, must familiarize oneself with the escape routes to be used in case of a calamity. The use of elevators, in case of a calamity, is strictly prohibited.
22. The management of AFAS Live has the right to have AFAS Live evacuated if, in its opinion, the situation requires it.

Security

23. The (camera surveillance) systems of AFAS Live record 24 hours per day. Recordings from the camera surveillance system will be made available by the management of AFAS Live to the competent justice authorities upon request.

No compensation

24. Visiting AFAS Live is at one's own risk. AFAS Live will not accept any liability for any damage, of whatever nature. AFAS Live will not be liable in case an organiser decides to cancel an event.

Denial of access, removal, and fine

25. The persons designated by the management of AFAS Live are at all times authorised to deny access to or remove from AFAS Live those persons who do not abide by the company rules, or in any way act in a disruptive or annoying manner. Moreover, these persons will owe an immediately payable fine to AFAS Live of € 500, without prejudice to the right of AFAS Live to compensation. In addition, an access injunction may be imposed on these persons.
26. The discovery of any criminal offences will, at all times, be reported to the police. In such an event, the persons designated by the management of AFAS Live are authorised to make an arrest and hand over the person(s) to the police.

Personal data

27. AFAS Live processes any personal data including camera images of its visitors in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act.

Change

28. AFAS Live reserves the right to change these company rules. Visitors are hereby encouraged to regularly study the company rules of AFAS Live for any changes.
